

Information for participants

Location

The workshop will be held at the Leibniz Institute for Baltic Sea Research Institute Warnemünde (IOW), Seestraße 15, D-18119 Rostock-Warnemünde (see map).

How to get there

Rostock can be reached from the airports in Hamburg or Berlin-Tegel. Trains are going approximately every two hours (see: bahn.hafas.de). Trains depart from Hamburg Hbf resp. Berlin Hbf which can be reached by S-Bahn connection (Hamburg) or bus shuttle (Berlin). Due to reconstruction work, no direct connections between Berlin and Rostock exist until May 2013.

Trains are arriving in Rostock Hbf (main railway station). From there you have to take the S-Bahn to Warnemünde. S-Bahn is going every 15 minutes and it takes app. 20 minutes travel time. Taxis depart in front of the main railway station (around 20€).

Warnemünde is a small town directly on the Baltic Sea coast and all destinations are lying in good walking distance (see map). Please be aware: the entrance to the institute is not on the seaside.

Accommodation

A two-week winter holiday period will start from 4 February 2013 and this will affect availability of hotel accommodation. A block-booking at "Hotel am alten Strom" (www.hotel-am-alten-strom.de) has been made for the period 4-7 February 2013, with special rates for IOW. The booking options are:

- 15 single rooms: 46 EUR/night incl. breakfast
- 20 double rooms: single use 56 EUR/night incl. breakfast
- or double use 66 EUR/night incl. breakfast.

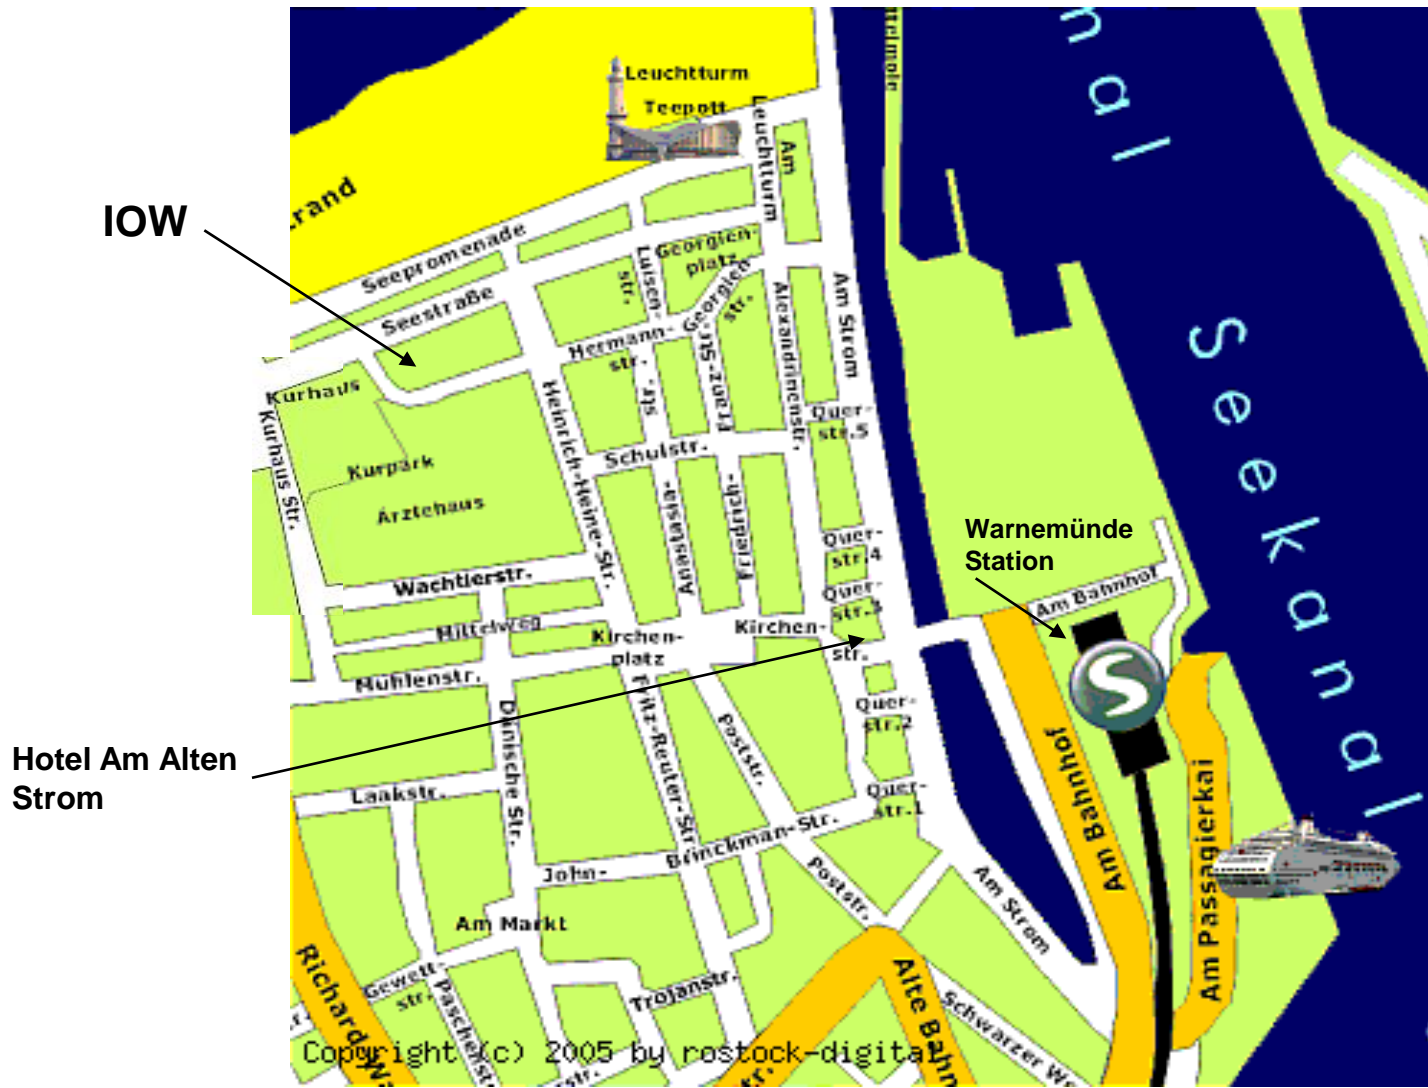

Rooms are reserved until 11th January 2013. Participants are asked to make their reservation directly with the hotel using "HELCOM Climate workshop" as a code word.

The hotel is located in the immediate vicinity of the Warnemünde railway station (across the bridge), and about 10 minutes walking distance to the institute (see map).
